AN EPITHALAMY

On the Names and Nuptials of the much honoured JOHN HARRIS, Eſq. and the moſt truly virtuous-minded gentlewoman, Mrs. MARY HARRIS, his moſt endeared Conſort.

Compoſed by WILLIAM HODNOT, in the Year 1649, and preſented to my great great grandmother on her weading-day, in the ſame year. WILLIAM WALLIS, 1788

Deus Corda coronat.

JOY join your hands, and may your chaſte hearts be
More pure than is the ſacred ſympathy,
Or Angel's union! may your bliſs increaſe,
And ne'er converſe with any thing but Peace:

Heaven confirm the happineſs I wiſh you
Rais'd by a gracious, true, and hopefull iſſue,
Nurtur'd with all celeſtial arts that can
Yield honour to the ſeed of grateful man.

Hope next from Heaven upon you both pul down [crown.
Her choiceſt joys, and thoſe joys ever
As times to come may ſee you in your love
Appear more chaſte than two unſeparat doves;

Repleniſh'd and adorn'd with all that may
Reach at thoſe joys that never ſhall decay
Rais'd to this height, ſucceſsfully go on,
Repelling ſin as ſoon as thought upon.

In ſuch a knot, ſo knit, ſo fair allied,
Is Heaven and Earth by unity faſt tied,
So live, ſo love, with all amazing wonder,
Such as GOD joins no fate can put aſunder.
